

North Georgia Little Britches Rodeo Association

A non-profit 501C3 organization DLN 26053606008902

North Georgia Little Britches Rodeo Association came together through parents and their children increasing desire to compete on a national level. Participants come from rodeo families and families who have never been around a rodeo. There is a wide variety of interests and talents found within the Little Britches rodeo. This organization offers many events with several created to build the skills needed for a more advanced event. The main objective is to create a place where kids of all ages can participate in the sport that they love, compete nationally, meet new people, develop their talents, and have fun.

The Little Britches season will begin in October of 2022 and end in April of 2023. The North Georgia Little Britches Rodeo Finals will be held on 4/22/2023. All rodeos will be held at the Crazy P Arena in Cedartown, Georgia. Sponsorships are the lifeline to keep the organization up and running. All participants pay an entry fee for the events he or she participate in each rodeo. This money goes toward the end of the year awards and at least five paid places for each event at each rodeo. The cost of producing the rodeo, leasing an arena, and maintaining or leasing equipment depends on our valued sponsors. The information below shows the different ways you can be a part of supporting kids in the world of rodeo for the whole season.
